WISE WORDS

President Helm

What Lasts

It is an interesting challenge, writing a message to the Class of 2005 for inclusion in your year-book. Some of you may read this within a few weeks or months of graduation; others may read it only years from now.

So what can I say to you that will be worth the reading now and for decades to come? Certainly nothing about politics, fashion, popular culture, or even manners. These are all bound to change over the years (and I am pretty certain that, unless you are unlike every previous generation, as the years advance you will think they have changed for the worse!).

No, the best I can manage is probably some kindly advice for living a happy and fulfilling life, advice that is as applicable today as it will be tomorrow and next year and at your 50th reunion.

So here it is:

No matter where you go or what you do, no matter whom you marry or do not marry, no matter whether you have health and wealth, neither or both, invest in friendship. Invest your time and energy, your candor and your heart. Never become so self-absorbed that you are not open to new friendships. But even more important, never become so busy and self-important that you lose touch with old friends, especially the friends you made at Muhlenberg.

Over the years I have often wondered why the years we spend in college are more precious than any other comparable period of life, and why the friendships we make in college are so much more powerful. I suspect it is because college is the place where we create ourselves and college friends are the people with whom we discovered who we were meant to be.

When you return to Muhlenberg, which I hope you will do often, you will doubtless find the campus changed in some ways, but not in its essentials. The paths and trees, the stones and timbers, the playing fields, classrooms, and performance halls will be essentially the same – and they will remember you as you were when this was your home and you made this College your own.

So, go into the world and make your mark. Muhlenberg has prepared you well. You're ready. But don't forget us, and don't forget the friends you made here. And every year, do something to help this College help the generations coming after you. You will not much like their music, their clothing, or their hair-styles, but they will be surprisingly like you in many ways – and like you they will deserve the gift of a Muhlenberg experience.

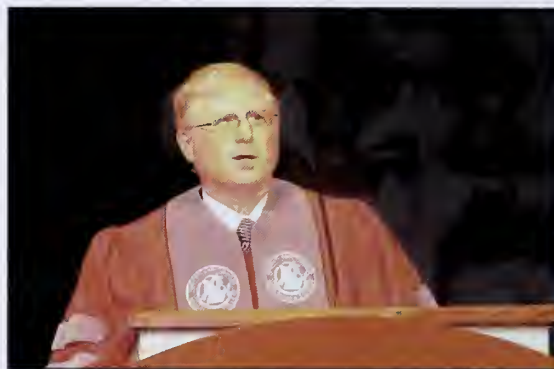

God speed and God bless you!

Warm wishes,

Randy Helm

Board of Trustees

Without the Board of Trustees of Muhlenberg College, most of the beautiful assets of our college would not exist! It is the Board of Trustees that creates these ideas, finds means of establishing them, and finally presents our community with beautiful buildings, programs, and most importantly, an unforgettable experience here at Muhlenberg College. Among Muhlenberg's major strategic initiatives list are the new plans for the astounding Natural Sciences center. As many of the students here at the 'Berg might have noticed, major building preparations are currently underway located on the west side of campus. In addition, there are plans to extend and Renovate the campus's Student Union, Seegers Union. Students and faculty alike are all eager to see what sort of positive changes these drastic plans will bring to the Muhlenberg Campus. Muhlenberg is growing stronger before our eyes each and every day. Muhlenberg is very lucky to have a Board of Trustees that is so dedicated and creative. Next time you see someone you do not know eating lunch in Garden Room, or walking around campus with blue prints, smile at them and be sure to thank them, for it might be one of the people who is changing your Muhlenberg experience.

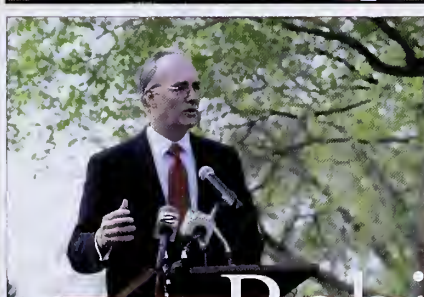

Outgoing Chair Trustee member, John Heffer, welcomes President Randy Helm to the Muhlenberg Community at President Helm's 2003 inauguration. With President Helm's visions and outstanding dedication, Muhlenberg has blossomed.

Another exciting fact about the Board of Trustees of Muhlenberg College is the newly elected Executive Board member, Tammy Bormann. Not only is Muhlenberg proud to present Tammy with this title, but also thrilled to announce that Tammy Bormann is the first woman ever elected to the Executive Board here at Muhlenberg College!

O.A.R. rocks Muhlenberg

A Few Words With O.A.R...

This year's fall concert brought Of A Revolution (O.A.R.) to Muhlenberg for the first time. It was a treat to have a band here that had recently toured with bands such as the Dave Matthews Band, Guster, Howie Day and Matt Nathanson (who also recently performed at 'Berg). On Sunday, November 14, 2004 at 7 p.m., Memorial Hall buzzed with excited college students and townies alike. Muhlenberg Activities Council proudly stood by adorned with matching headphones and O.A.R. attire, as the music blared throughout Memorial Hall and the Muhlenberg campus. O.A.R. is composed of five members that originally united circa 1996. The members of the band attended high school together in the 'burbs of D.C. Since then, and following a booming college music career together, the group has been compared to many other artists as popular as Dave Matthews and Dispatch. After four independent releases, O.A.R. recently made the transition to a major label with their Lava/Everfine Records debut "In Between Now and Then" and "34th and 8th," a live album. Thanks to MAC, Muhlenberg had a taste of "The Black Rock," a "Crazy Game of Poker," and many more of O.A.R.'s musical stories.

Homecoming

WELCOME BACK ALUMNI

Every year alumni return to reunite with old classmates and new students. This year the college invited alumni and students to over 30 activities, including the traditional Homecoming Football Game and the Golf Outing. This season's football team played with enthusiasm, but unfortunately fell to Franklin & Marshall, 15-10. The stands were filled for the halftime show featuring the Perkulators, the Muhlenberg cheerleaders, and the crowning of the Homecoming King and Queen. Past winners bestowed the crown to this year's king and queen, Ryan Kavalsky and Lauren Cohen. A new tradition to Muhlenberg is the scarecrow decorating contest in which student-run groups compete. This year's winners included WMUH for scariest and JTC EMS for most original.

Mr. Muhlenberg

And the Winner is...

Competing in this year's Mr. Muhlenberg competition were contestants RJ Caras '05, Marc Gollob '05, Nick Richardson '05, John Kirby '06, Jason Bonder '07, John Jannuzzi '07, Dan Papperman '07, and Jared Marlatt '08. The prevailing Mr. Muhlenberg was Marc Gollob, who charmed the audience and judges with his impression of Mr. Peepers (from the popular skit on Saturday Night Live) and impressive skills on the makeshift parallel bars, or arms, provided by two friends. Other crowd favorites included Dan Papperman's Little Mermaid performance and John Jannuzzi's play off of MTV's Made. In the swimwear competition the audience got a peak at Gollob in a bikini and Richardson in a speedo. Overall, the annual tradition proved a success with a great turnout, tons of funny moments, and a deserving winner.

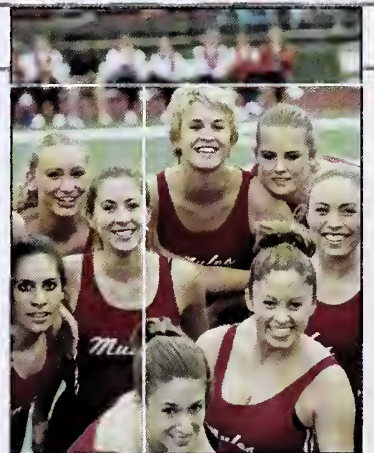

Parent's Weekend

ALL IN THE FAMILY

Fall semester ushered in another annual Parent's Weekend here at Muhlenberg. Festivities kicked off on Friday, October 29th when parents were invited to sit in on their students' classes. The Muhlenberg Teachers Association ran a successful performance of Pippin throughout the weekend. Friday night showcased the Student Art Show and the Student Cabaret Show. The Art Show in the Center For the Arts displayed sculptures and paintings by student artists. The Cabaret Show featured groups like The Girls Next Door and the Soul Sound Steppers along with other student talent. Saturday offered the Senior Auction, State of the College Address, football game, and luncheon in the Field House. The fun weekend concluded with a breakfast hosted by President Helm for all First-Year students.

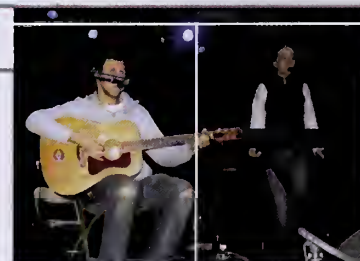

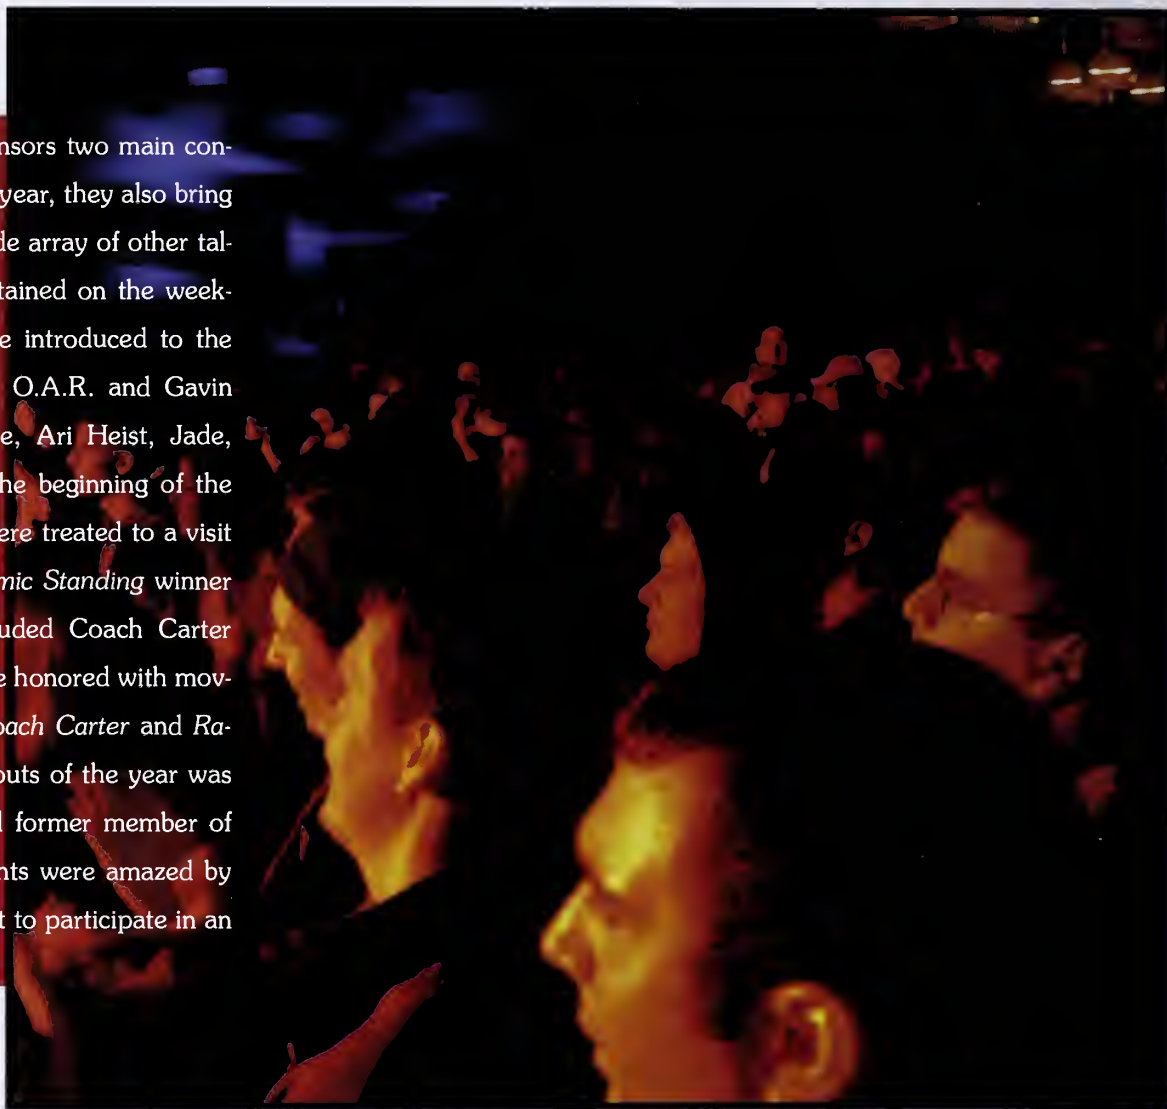

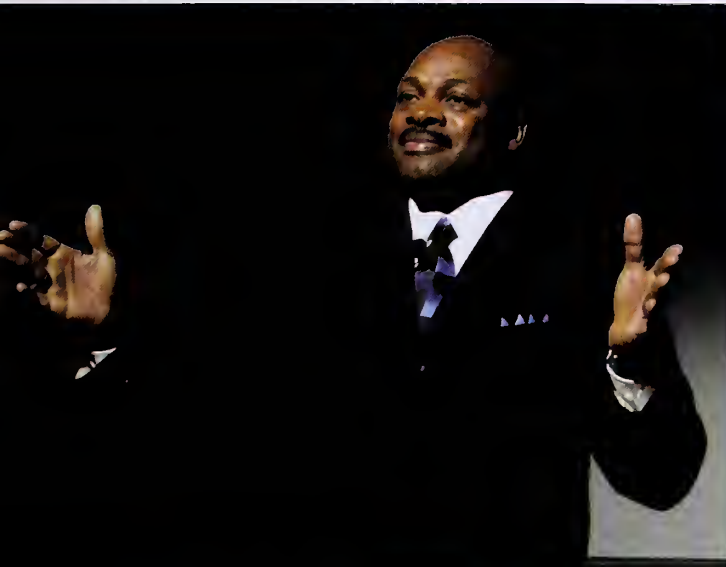

Performances

Entertainment at the Berg

although MAC sponsors two main concerts every school year, they also bring Muhlenberg's campus a wide array of other talent to keep students entertained on the weekends. Many students were introduced to the opening performers at the O.A.R. and Gavin DeGraw concerts: Ben Lee, Ari Heist, Jade, and Michael Tolcher. In the beginning of the spring semester students were treated to a visit by the very funny Last Comic Standing winner Dat Phan. Speakers included Coach Carter and Coach Jones, who were honored with movies based on their lives (Coach Carter and Radio). One of the best turnouts of the year was for beat-box champion and former member of The Roots, Rahzel. Students were amazed by Rahzel's talent and even got to participate in an impromptu MC battle.

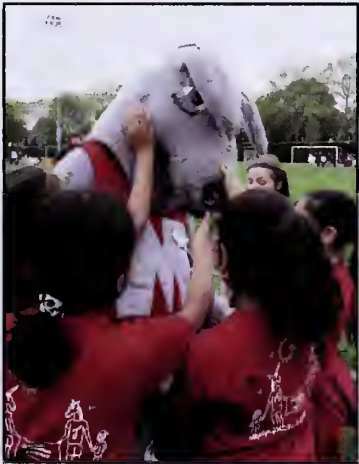

Jefferson Field Day

It's all Fun & Games

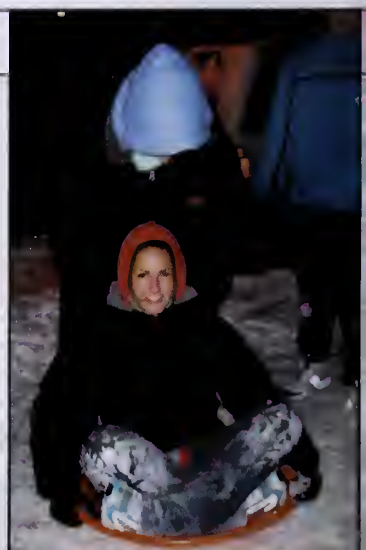

Muhlenberg College hosted the sixteenth annual Jefferson Field Day on Saturday May 7th. The day was a big success as Muhlenberg student volunteers helped run activities for over 800 students from Jefferson Elementary School. The day consisted of events such as relay races, soccer games, obstacle courses, and team sports. There were also very entertaining shows for the kids featuring hosts and Muhlenberg mascots. Over 200 Muhlenberg students managed the activities and all aspects of the day. Jefferson Field Day is the culmination of year-long events sponsored by the Muhlenberg-Jefferson partnership. It was a beautiful day and a nice break from schoolwork for elementary and college students alike. All those involved will surely look forward to next year's events.

Magic Showcase

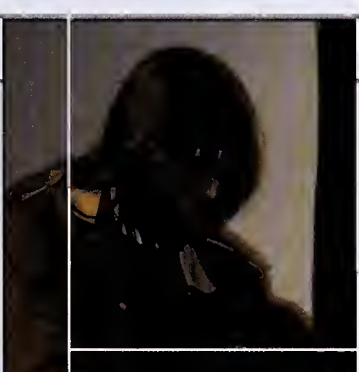

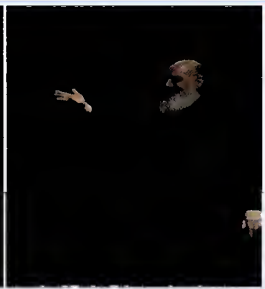

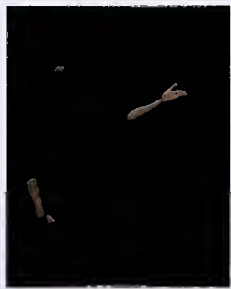

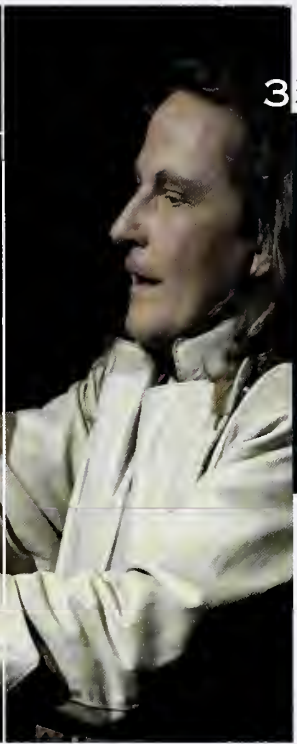

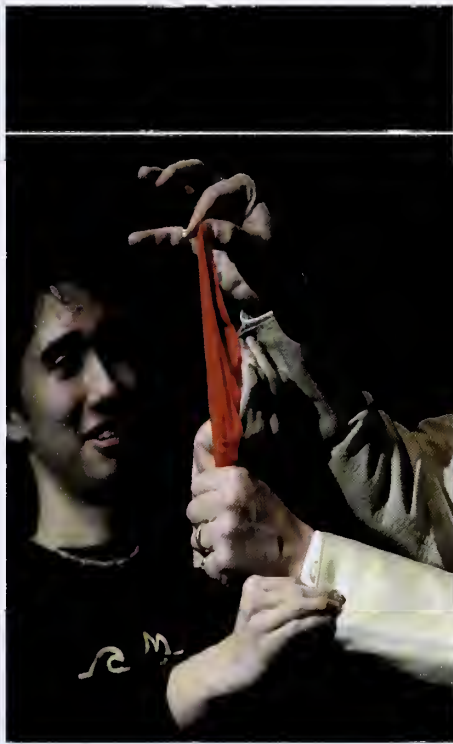

ABRA KADABRA

The Theory and Art of Magic is the first ever on-going academic symposium on the magical arts. It features world-famous magicians performing their astonishing art along with artists, teachers, and professors trying to articulate the nature and importance of magic as a human experience. If you were able to attend any of the shows and talks, you have a sense how cool this all can be! Muhlenberg's magic program has become nationally famous and internationally recognized through feature stories in the New York Times, The Discovery Channel, USA Today, The Chronicle of Higher Education, among many others. It is one more of the truly distinctive experiences that Muhlenberg offers to its students. Be sure to come back for the events in 2006!

Gavin DeGraw

I Don't Want to Be

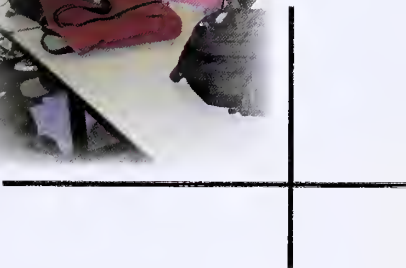

Muhlenberg Activities Counsel brought rising singer-songwriter Gavin DeGraw to campus for this year's spring concert. Widely known for his radio hit "I Don't Want to Be" Gavin came to the 'Berg during a leg of his Chariot tour. A departure from the normally slated comedy show, students had a great time watching Gavin and his openers, Jade and Michael Tolcher. As funny as he is talented, DeGraw had the audience laughing the entire show. In an interview conducted by The Muhlenberg Weekly, Gavin tells about his fondness of toys when he is on the road and the many embarrassing situations he finds himself in on stage, not excluding his frequent encounters with women's undergarments. Anyone who has seen or met this down to earth young star knows he is going places in the music business.

Organizations

'Berg Activities Council

Bringing the best of the best to the 'Berg

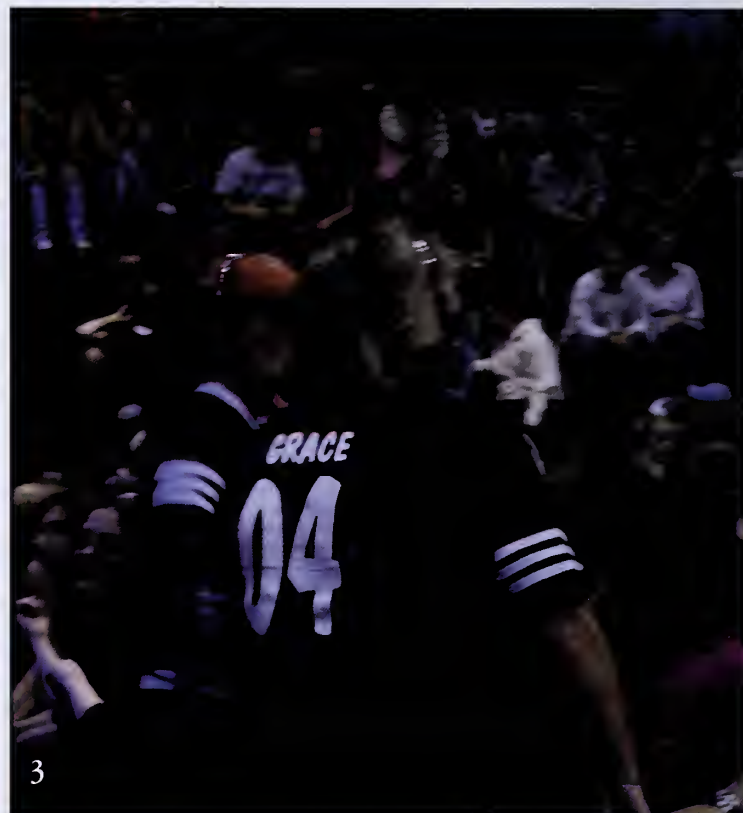

Muhlenberg Activities Council works to bring life to the college campus from events such as wax hands and student performers to the Gavin DeGraw concert put on this year. The purpose of MAC is to provide activities for the entire student body. MAC members initiate, plan, and implement these events. Through their participation in MAC, students see first hand how they can impact social life at Muhlenberg. MAC provides an opportunity to develop leadership skills as well as to meet new people and have fun.

Student Council

The Council that cooks!

The Student Council is the executive branch of the study body organization. It consists of the student body president, 24 student representatives elected each year by the student body, and the four class presidents. The Council, as the primary student governing body, transacts all business pertaining to the student body and is instrumental in the recognition and funding of student organizations.

Muhlenberg Dance Association

The Muhlenberg Dance Association, or MDA, is an active part of arts life on Muhlenberg's campus. Made up of students from many different programs and majors with a common interest in dance performance and production, the association presents students with the opportunity to perform, choreograph, and be a part of the entire process of putting together a dance concert. Every semester there is a Student Choreographed Concert and an informal showcase of student work. Both shows are cast through a simple audition process. The only requirements for MDA membership is a dedication to the concerts one chooses to audition for, and a promise of ten hours devoted to technical production experience.

Muhlenberg Theatre Association

"The mission of the MTA is to provide all students with the opportunity to take an active part in theatre art experiences, which include, but are not limited to performance, design, directing, production management, and arts administration." - MTA

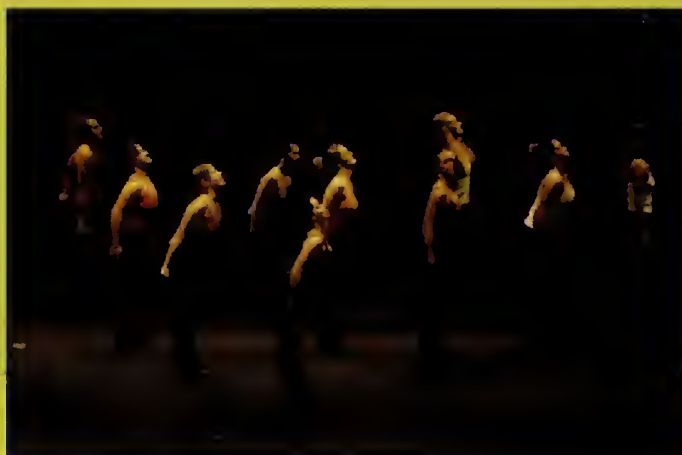

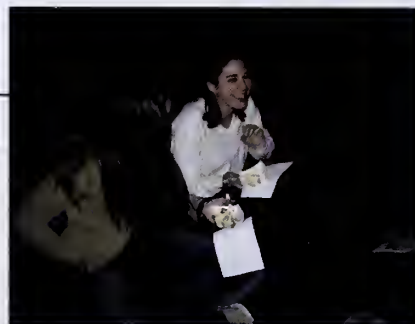

Residence Hall Association

The Residence Hall Association (RHA) is a form of government for Muhlenberg's residence halls. The RHA influences how residence halls are run, and the nature of the community that exists within them. The RHA also sponsors social and educational events on campus. By living on campus, you are automatically a member of RHA.

Perkulators

The purpose of the Perkulators is to raise Muhlenberg College school spirit within the college community through dance. They dance at half times of the Varsity Basketball games, as well as the Family Weekend and Homecoming Football games. They participate in various activities on campus and run various fund raising functions throughout the season.

Soul Sound Steppers

Soul Sound Steppers are the step team, which means they make beats and sounds by stepping with their feet and using their hands to hit their bodies as if they were drums. Their goal and purpose for starting this in 2001 was to diversify Muhlenberg's Campus by giving it a little soul and hip hop. They promote unity between all members, and do not turn anyone away regardless of ability.

Girls Next Door

The Girls Next Door is an all-female a cappella group founded in 1999. The Girls Next Door arrange, learn, and sing all types of music and love to do it. They serve the community and the school by performing at as many events as possible.

Dynamics

The Dynamics is the only co-ed a cappella group on campus. Made up of students from all years and across majors, the group rehearses several times a week and performs on and off campus. They also made their first CD this year called Charged.

Greek Life

Greek Life at the 'Berg

Greek Life at Muhlenberg has a strong history. While the players in the game have changed in recent years, the overall feel of Greek Life at the 'Berg has remained strong. The Interfraternity Council and the Panhellenic Council both work hard to preserve a chemistry between our greek organizations and plan events. These two groups also plan and help execute Greek Week. Greek Week was a very successful event this year. With all Fraternities and Sororities participating, a tremendous amount of spirit and sportsmanship was shown. Each organization participated in events such as tug-of-war, swimming relays, quiz show, and frisbee-golf.

Inter-fraternity Council

"We, the fraternities at Muhlenberg College, do hereby establish the Inter-Fraternity Association in order to foster understanding and co-operation among the men's Greek Letter organizations, to seek solutions to common problems, and to assist each other and the College in attaining educational and cultural objectives."

The lady Mules finished their season with a winning record for the third year in a row, increasing their all-time record to an impressive 322 wins, 188 losses, and 35 ties, while defeating defending Centennial Conference champion Johns Hopkins. This year's team was led by all-American senior Kristen Bruschi, who finished her field hockey career as the Muhlenberg's all-time leading scorer with 59 goals and 135 points, which was also good enough to rank her second among the all-time points leaders in Centennial Conference history.

The Men's Soccer team ended their season with a seven-game unbeaten streak giving them a record of nine wins seven losses and three ties. The Mules hosted five All-CC players while junior James Henshaw received All-Regional honors. His eight goals led the team and were tied for the Centennial Conference lead. Falling to undefeated Johns Hopkins in a heartbreaking shoot-out at the Centennial Conference semi-finals, the Mules had another impressive season.

WOMEN'S SOCCER

Women's soccer had another good year with 10 wins, 6 losses and two ties while winning six conference games. Like the men's team, the women's season ended prematurely with a heartbreaking loss in the first round of the Centennial Conference Tournament. The team boasted four All-CC members and an All-Regional member in Rebecca Armstrong who completed her career second all-time at Muhlenberg in assists (20) and third in both points (100) and goals (40).

BASKETBALL

The Muhlenberg men's basketball team ended the season with 12 wins and 13 losses, seven of which were by five points or less. With sophomore Jeff Stewart, a second-team All-Centennial Conference and third-team All-Middle-Atlantic Region selection returning, next year could be a great year for the Mules. Undoubtedly the graduation of seniors like Donte Borden and Ryan Bonda will weigh heavy next years team, the mules are counting on upcoming juniors, Jimmy O'Brien and Chris Pothering to help lessen the load on Stewart.

ATHLETICS

This year's volleyball team was extremely young but very talented. With no seniors and only three juniors, they were able to go five and five in the Centennial Conference. With many standouts like All-American honorable mention Julie Lauro, the school's all-time leader for kills with 1,392, and fellow juniors Mary Henning and Jen Weist, all returning for another year, the future looks extremely bright.

BASKETBALL

During this stretch, the lady Mules captured a Scotty Wood Tournament championship and broke the Division III record for most points in a half (78) along with most three pointers made in a game (21). Senior Gwen Doyle ended her career with the team record for most three-pointers in a career (186) and season (64). The team looks forward to a great season next year with the return of eight juniors.

WRESTLING

Pin to Win

The Muhlenberg wrestling team again finished above .500 in conference action for their seventh straight year, coming in fourth at the Centennial Conference championships. All-American sophomore Matt Loesch had a record-breaking year, becoming the first Muhlenberg wrestler to advance in Nationals. Not only did Loesch advance, he took fourth place in the Division III 197 weight class. Expectations are high for next year, as 75 percent of the winning matches Muhlenberg had this year came from underclassmen.

BASEBALL

Under Head Coach Bob Macaluso, the Baseball team achieved many titles of honor both on the field and off. According to the 'Berg Athletics web site, sophomores Jason Bonder and Matthew Block were among 24 Muhlenberg spring athletes named to the Centennial Conference Academic Honor Roll. On the field, according to the site, Senior pitcher Gregg Burkhart and sophomore catcher A.J. Bertini received All-CC honorable mention. Pitchers Gregg Burkhart and senior Matt Cooper shared strategy, as Cooper aided in a split with Gettysburg. The complete-game pitching of senior, Cooper, combined with a 13-hit attack, gave the Mules a 13-2 win against Gettysburg in the second game of a double-header. This game, and others against Wesleyan, Wheeling Lake Erie, Misericordia, Haverford, Hartwick, Moravian, Gettysburg, York, and Lehighmore, Haverford, Ursinus, Dickinson, Drew and Johns Hopkins are just a few that the Mules Baseball team has conquered. Watch out!

SOFTBALL

In keeping with a Muhlenberg tradition of academic achievement among athletes, the softball team here at the 'Berg is made up of players that not only shine on the field, but might have a GPA that's just as impressive as their number of home runs! Senior Kadie Serfass, as well as two of her teammates, were among 24 Muhlenberg spring athletes named to the Centennial Conference Academic Honor Roll.

Softball players did not fail to impress, especially players such as sophomore Nicole Washburn. For the second time in her career, Washburn was named pitcher of the week by the Centennial Conference. Senior players will be missed, but were sure to leave their mark; Senior Ally Ogden went 3-for-3 and pitched a six-hitter against Haverford in Muhlenberg's last game of the season, a 5-2 win, but a 1-0 loss in the opening game of the doubleheader eliminated the Mules from playoff contention. Under head coach Rob Shutte, the Men's Golf team did not fail to impress! At the Centennial Conference Championships, sophomore Patrick Moyle was one of two Muhlenberg golfers to fire a final-round 77. The Mules came in seventh place overall, but their team score of 317 in the final round was the third best team score of the day. ATHLETICS

The Muhlenberg women's golf team entered their 2005 season with its most experienced team thus far. Following the trend of high standards both in athletics and academics, sophomore Kristen Amore was among 24 Muhlenberg spring athletes named to the Centennial Conference Academic Honor Roll. Out of the classroom and onto the green, senior Kristen Bruschi was named Muhlenberg's outstanding senior female athlete at the Lehigh Valley Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women luncheon!

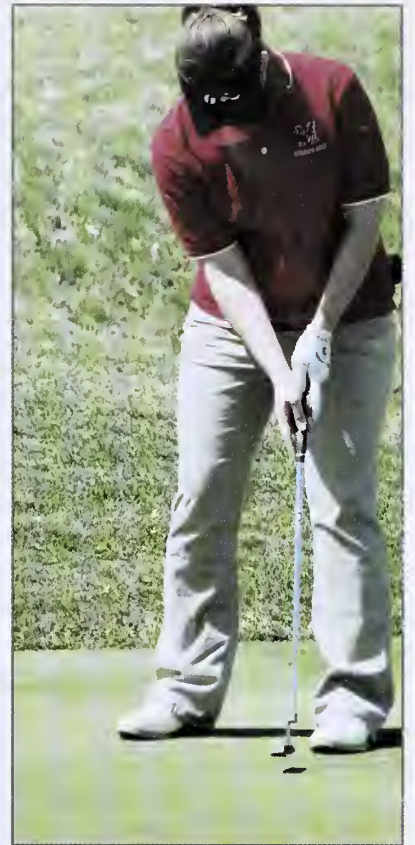

During their season, senior Kristen Bruschi shot a career-best 87 to lead the Mules to a second-place finish at the Ursinus Invitational. Muhlenberg was just 13 strokes behind first-place Gettysburg. Sophomore Laura Fazio and senior Kristen Bruschi each shot an 89 to lead Muhlenberg to a first-place finish at the Dickinson Invitational in its first tournament of the season. It was the first regular-season tournament title in team history.

At the Gettysburg Spring Invitational, sophomore Kristen Amore shot a 94 to finish just 10 strokes off the lead. Muhlenberg ended up in sixth place in its final tune up before the Centennial Conference Championships.

At the CC championships, the Mules carded an 829 over two days landing in third place. Sophomore Kristen Amore and freshman Dana Bielecki just missed earning All-CC honors. (Text courtesy of Muhlenberg Athletics Web site)

MEN'S TENNIS

You might not recognize the Tennis team this season. They have undergone some major changes. From last year's seven player team to this season's bigger and stronger team, the group has flourished under head coach George Henry. This past season, the team was built of ten solid players, four of which were freshman who will keep the team strong in the future. On the Muhlenberg Athletics website, senior Mitchell Reading explained how he and his co-captain, Jeff Kraft, placed an emphasis on acquiring freshman for the team. The team kicked off its season with a Matte Award match at Moravian. In the end, men's tennis can boast of defeats against Moravian, Albright, Elizabethtown, McDaniel, Ursinus, East Stroudsburg and Wilkes.

Saying goodbye to graduates will be difficult, but the new freshmen on board will be sure to continue the legacy. These seniors who are leaving were sure to shine. For senior Jeff Kraft, who was teamed with Gutwillig, opponents such as the Blue Jays did not pose a threat. This match provided Kraft with his 80th career win. (Text courtesy of the Muhlenberg Athletics web site)

WOMEN'S TENNIS

With the number of wins soaring high above the number of losses, the Women's Tennis Team had a very successful season. Under head coach Linda Andrews, the team swung their way into a firm standing. With wins against Moravian, McDaniel, Salisbury, Bryn Mawr, Elizabethtown, Franklin and Marshall, Johns Hopkins, Haverford, Dickinson, Gettysburg, Washington and Ursinus, the team practically swept the floor clean. Not only was the women's team good at winning, but its members boast popular media exposure. Junior Amy Schmidt of the team has been selected to ESPN The Magazine's Academic All-District II College 148 Division At-Large second team. Schmidt had a combined record of 36-5 playing No. 1 singles and doubles for the Mules in 2005. She was named Centennial Conference player of the year and became the first Muhlenberg tennis player invited to the NCAA Championships, where she reached the Round of 16 before falling to the eventual national champion. Schmidt also led the Mule team to its first NCAA bid and a school-record-tying 12 wins. After slight disappointment, the women's tennis team received a bid to the NCAA Division III Championships after all. Thanks to the withdrawal of Sewanee, the outstanding and deserving women's team is where it belongs! As of May 5, 2005, the team was ranked eighth in the Atlantic South region. They are now considered to be one of the top seven teams in this region. Way to go, lady Mules! (Text Courtesy of the Muhlenberg Athletics Web site)

MEN'S LACROSSE

In their 2005 season, the Muhlenberg men's lacrosse team set school records for wins (seven) and goals scored (150). Unfortunately, the Mules Men's Lax team did not walk away with a trophy after the Centennial Conference games. However, the Mules were ahead, tied or within one goal in the third quarter of half of their eight CC games, including their opener against top-10 Gettysburg. This was the second year in a row that the Men's' team did not win the CC. The team finished with an overall record of 7-9.

One sign of the Mules' progress in the CC, although it did not show up in the standings, was that they had their first two all-conference selections. Bradley Lutzer, the lone senior on the team, received second-team honors as a defense man. He led all CC longstickmen with a school-record (72 ground balls). Sophomore Kyle Hart, second to Lutzer with 67 ground balls, earned honorable mention as a defensive mid fielder.

Other players, such as Junior Mike Tentindo, Freshman Mickey Norton, Sophomore Sean Toohill, Junior James Robinson and Freshman Kyle Farris were all key in bringing the team together and proving that the Men's' Lax team is serious about what they do best.

The Women's Lacrosse team was off to a snowy start when their first scheduled game, as well as a scrimmage were canceled due to the unrelenting weather. The team was out to prove that not even mother nature could stop them. Due to the weather, the team had to open up against nationally ranked Franklin & Marshall, the eventual Centennial Conference regular-season champion. Following a loss in that game, the next contest was snowed out too. On their quest to prove that they would succeed, snow or not, once Muhlenberg got in the groove, their talent was obvious to all. The team finished up tying a school record with eight wins. The Mules finished with an 8-7 record, making the four-member senior class the winningest in program history with 25 career wins.

In the Centennial Conference, Muhlenberg won back-to-back road games against Washington and Bryn Mawr, both by 10 goals, to run its record to 2-1, but home losses to Haverford and Dickinson (in overtime) prevented the Mules from reaching the playoffs.

Senior Diana Blankley, the last line of the defense, became the program's time saves leader in a 1-2 win at Washington. She finished with 669 stops (sixth in CC history) and ranked third in the annals with a career goals-against average of 11.83. Needless to say, she will be missed. Other key players of the team include Junior Courtney Tapkas, Senior Christa Carlisle, and junior Shannon Donohue, who both scored 31 goals and eclipsed the 100-point mark during the season, and Sophomore Elizabeth Alexander. Way to go Women's Lax!

Drew and the Mick

"The batter is the hero. He begins at home, but his mission is to venture away from it, encountering various unforeseeable dangers. At each station opponents scheme to put him out by strength or skill or guile. Should they succeed he is defeated. If his own heroic talents are superior, however, he completes the circuit and returns victorious to home, there to be greeted with joy by friends he left behind."

Donald Kagan (Yale Dean)

P.S. Dear Drew,

You are our hero with all that you have achieved at Muhlenberg College. Reaching these bases will be life's lessons. It is from adversity that strength is born. We know you'll see the rewards of home plate many times as you pursue your career.

To our Jen:

The "Path of Life"

VISION

Vision alone is but a dream but when put into action it can achieve wondrous things.

LEADERSHIP

In the simplest terms, a leader is one who knows where she wants to go, and gets up and goes.

SUPPORTER

Great people are those who make others feel that they, too, can become great.

BUILDER

The spirit, the will to turn and the will to excel are the things that endure. These qualities are so much more important than the event that occurs.

EFFORT

When we do the best we can, we never know what miracle is wrought in our lives, or in the life of another.

PERSEVERANCE

If you doubt you can accomplish something, then you can't accomplish it. You have to have confidence in your ability and then be tough enough to follow through.

ACHIEVEMENT

It is time for us to stand up and cheer for the doer, the achiever— the one who recognizes the challenges and does something about it.

You exhibit all of the above core qualities; now go out and meet the world head on! We are always here to support you.

Love (ATM), Mom and Dad

PS: With each new creative departure one should leave with two pieces of luggage, the desire to have fun and the desire to discover as much as possible along the way.

CLASS OF 2005

We have watched you enthralled, as you have grown from a precocious little girl into a grown woman. Our minds are filled with memories and pictures we have taken with our hearts. You have taken us all on a wonderful journey, where we have witnessed first hand how you have learned, "The Game of Life" by meeting every adversity "Head On" and by never "Benching" yourself when things got tough.

As your parents, we are truly humbled by your strength and courage. You may not think of yourself as a teacher, but you have taught us, your parents, some of our greatest lessons. Life is a latticework of gains and loses, layers of pleasure punctuated at times with loss and sorrow. Random disappointment, catastrophic or tiny, may well cut us down from time to time, but inner strength and the love of your family can shore us back up again.

May all your dreams come true, baby girl.
With all our love forever more,
Dad, Mom, Tricia and Kyle

Take her and cut her out in little stars
And she will make the face of heaven so fine
That all the world will be in love with night
And pay no worship to the garish sun

Remember when you were a freshman and the many telephone calls saying you can't do it? Well, you did it and did it well!

Now, once again, you find yourself at that place in life where you must close one door before you may open another. Continue on with the strength, commitment and enthusiasm you have given Muhlenberg. Always remember how much you are loved and how proud you have made us. You have grown into a beautiful, mature and caring young woman. Continue toward your goals, for all your accomplishments are our joy, your success our happiness. We love you very much,
